Special Exhibition of "Soban Nenbutsu" Held in 2024

The "Soban Nenbutsu" is an inzei nenbutsu (recitation of the Buddha's name in Japanese) in which the recitation is accompanied by the striking of soban (a pair of metal instruments). It is a traditional culture, which was designated as a "Tokyo Metropolitan Government Intangible Folk Cultural Property (Manners and Customs)" in 1991, and is the only one to exist in the 23 cities of Tokyo. The Imaizumi Enmei-ji Soban Kou Hozonkai (Imaizumi Enmei-ji Soban Association of the Affiliated Households, a conservation society) was established to preserve this cultural property and holds a special "Soban Nenbutsu" exhibition every year in conjunction with Tokyo Heritage Weeks.
